Halo of Happiness

fresh designz® talk

Welcome back and we hope that you're surviving all the ups and downs of a global pandemic. Isn't it great that floral designs still bring a smile to our faces?

We introduce some new designs and new products on the following pages. These arrangements from Richard Go also include many older products that continue to stand the test of time. We hope that they will inspire you to continue to rise above the challenges that surround all of us during these difficult times.

Happy Floristry!

Lynette Todd, Editor

Designer: Richard Go AIFD Photographer: Craig Peihopa

Contrast a tower of black floral foam with dazzling white for a heavenly result.

OASIS® Noir Ideal Floral Foam bricks have been shaped to fit inside and above a glass container. They support the luscious Lilies that spill from the top while dried Ming Fern encircles the base adding balance and harmony.

Step 1. Soak 8 bricks of OASIS® Noir Ideal Floral Foam then drain. Place two bricks side by side then trace the circumference of the glass container. Place tracing on bricks and cut away excess foam before placing inside the vase.

Step 2. Create the tower by placing 2 bricks on top of each other, use wooden skewers to secure the layers together. Cut the sides with a knife to form a cylinder. Use the excess foam as sandpaper to rub the surface just like applying frosting to a cake. By doing so, the 'grout' will disappear and result in a smoother, seamless surface.

Step 3. Insert stems of Casablanca Lilies (pollen removed) next to each other to create a dome. Insert a stem of Preserved Dried Ming Fern just above the glass container, wind it around to create a skirt, fasten with a florist wire hairpin. Spray with Floralife® Finishing Touch.

Lime Explosion

Transform and illuminate the darkest of rooms with an OASIS® Netted Sphere.

Cleverly decorated it sits above twists and twirls of Blue Annealed Stub Wire. These have been wrapped with Parafilm then Metallic Wire to create a wire urn pedestal that even works upside down. Like an hourglass!

Try it both ways and follow Richard Go's how-to-make instructions for a similar result.

Designer: Richard Go AIFD Photographer: Craig Peihopa

Urn-like Frame

- Step 1. Construct frame by using 8 lengths of Blue Annealed Stub Wire. Cover each length with Parafilm then crisscross with Apple Green Metallic Wire (leave a gap in the middle clear of wire for easy binding purposes).
- Step 2. Gather the wires together and bind the middle with Parafilm. Bend the Blue Annealed Stub Wire 90 degrees outwards to form radial axes (like a clock). Slightly bend the axes inwards to create an urn-like shape then curl each end of the 8 lengths of wire using pliers.
- Step 3. Create the rings by bending extra Stub Wire into a circle. Small ring is 1 length of this wire and the larger ring is 1.5 lengths. Fasten the rings to the Urn using the Oasis Apple Metallic Wire.
- Step 4. Cut 4 strips of Flat Aluminium Wire twice the length of the Blue Annealed Stub Wire. Place the 4 Flat Aluminium Wires alongside the Stub wire, fasten with Metallic Wire next to the axes on both ends. Make a loop with each of the Flat Aluminium Wires just under the urn and bind with more Metallic Wire. Run your fingers and thumb along the surface of the Flat Aluminium Wire, bend to desired curvature and finish by curling the ends outwards.

Ivy Coated Sphere

- Step 1. Soak OASIS® Netted Sphere before placing Hedera Leaves (without stems) on a pan of water to hydrate then soak for a few minutes.
- Step 2. Pin the Hedera Ivy onto the OASIS® Netted Sphere using Diamanté Pins until the whole sphere is covered. Place sprigs of Variegated Japanese Box around the base of the sphere. Insert into frame.

Electric blue is back and you can see why.

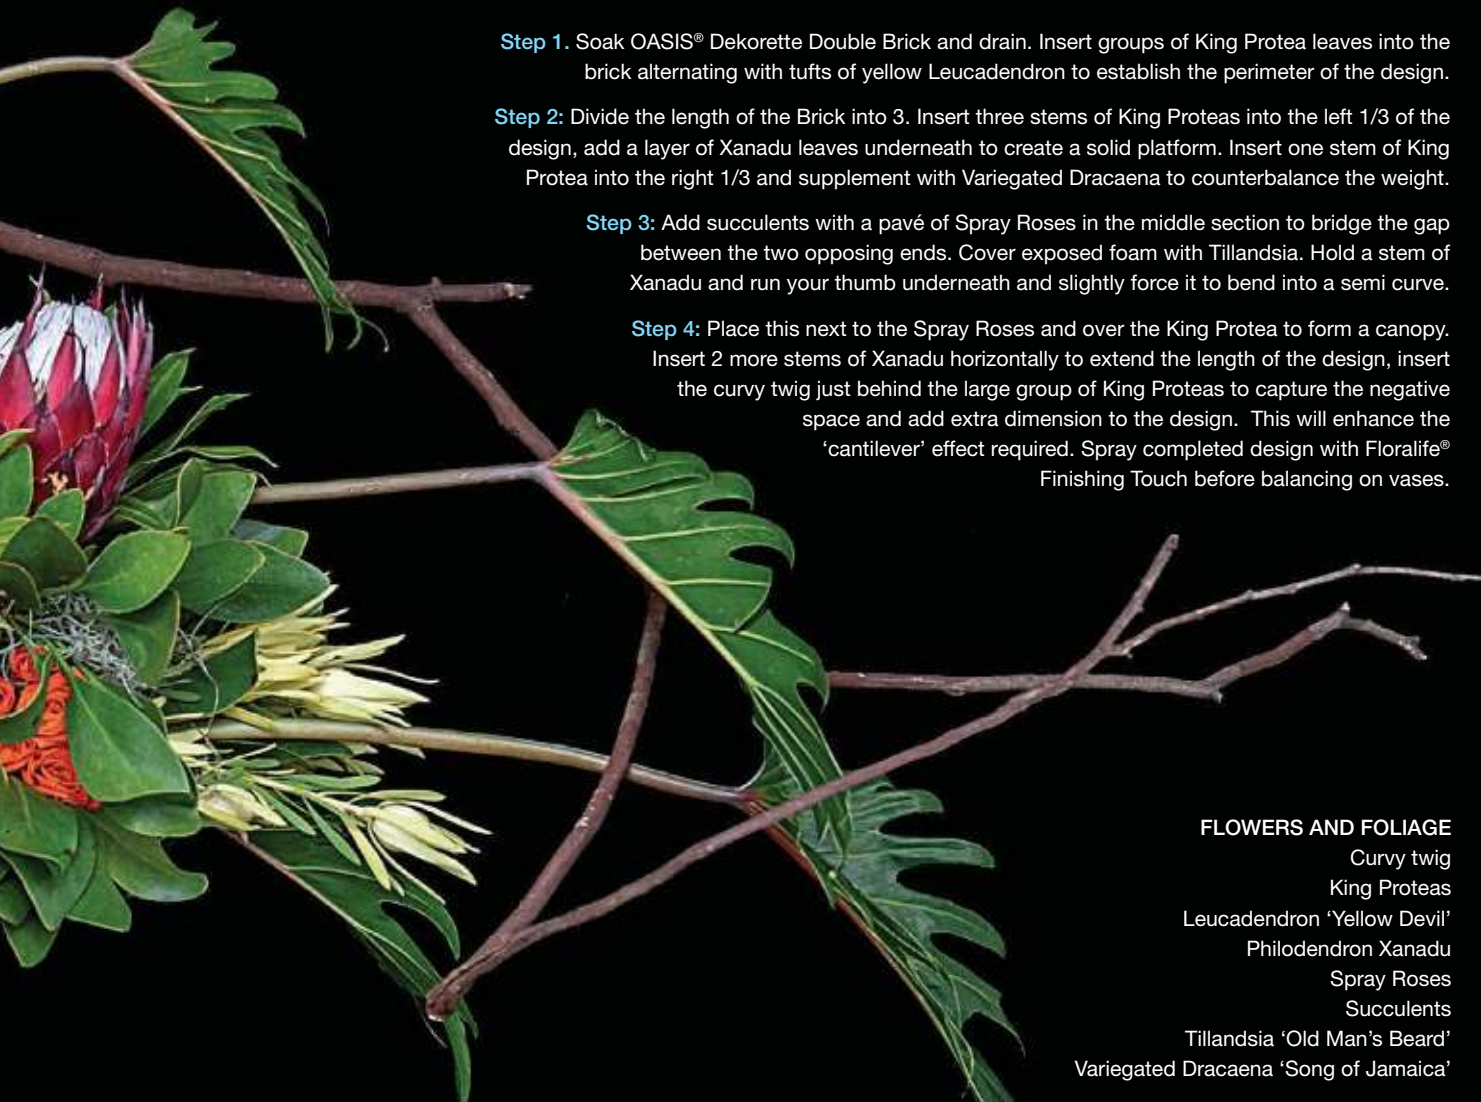

This strong and vibrant colour always flatters the beautiful foliage inserted above. Matching vases sit beneath a cantilever design that supports a carefully balanced bare branch.

Step 1: Soak OASIS® Dekorette Double Brick and drain. Insert groups of King Protea leaves into the brick alternating with tufts of yellow Leucadendron to establish the perimeter of the design.

Step 2: Divide the length of the Brick into 3. Insert three stems of King Proteas into the left 1/3 of the design, add a layer of Xanadu leaves underneath to create a solid platform. Insert one stem of King Protea into the right 1/3 and supplement with Variegated Dracaena to counterbalance the weight.

Step 3: Add succulents with a pavé of Spray Roses in the middle section to bridge the gap between the two opposing ends. Cover exposed foam with Tillandsia. Hold a stem of Xanadu and run your thumb underneath and slightly force it to bend into a semi curve.

Step 4: Place this next to the Spray Roses and over the King Protea to form a canopy. Insert 2 more stems of Xanadu horizontally to extend the length of the design, insert the curvy twig just behind the large group of King Proteas to capture the negative space and add extra dimension to the design. This will enhance the 'cantilever' effect required. Spray completed design with Floralife® Finishing Touch before balancing on vases.

White into the Night

Stun spectators with an all-white bouquet that turns into a keepsake.

It will become even more bold and breathtaking as the evening progresses. Creamy coloured Amaranthus trail from the Roses above. They complement the sharper white tones of the preserved Hydrangea and fresh Lisianthus.

Step 1. Soak the OASIS® Grande Straight Handle then drain. Dab OASIS® Floral Adhesive on the underside of the bouquet holder then place stemless Hedera Ivy in a circular fashion until the whole surface area is covered.

Step 2. Run a thin streak of the adhesive down the stem then cover it with Gold Edged Organza Ribbon and finish with a Round Headed Pearl Pin.

Establish the outline of the bouquet using sprigs of Dried Leather Fern, Ruscus and trailing Amaranthus. Dab each stem with adhesive prior to insertion.

Step 3. Insert Avalanche Roses as focal flowers, supplemented with heads of Lisianthus. Place tufts of Dried Hydrangea between the Roses. Fill gaps with sprigs of dried Ming Fern then spray Floralife® Finishing Touch on the fresh Roses and Lisianthus.
